

HOW TO FIND US
at Littleover Baptist
Community Hall

Thornhill Road is off Burton Road about 600 yards west of the ring road (A5111). Coming from the ring road it is the third turning on the left after the Iceland store. There is a direction sign to the Church opposite the end of Thornhill Road. For SatNav use postcode DE23 6FZ.

There is a small parking area next to the Church, and street parking is possible in Thornhill Road and Old Hall Road. Convenient buses from the City centre are Trent Barton's 'Harlequin' from Gower Street and V3 from the bus station, together with Arriva's 5A from Babington Lane; alight at Iceland – the second stop after the ring road.

The Jubilee Music Circle takes its name from its formation in the Queen's Diamond Jubilee year, 2012. It is a successor to the Derby Music Circle which was founded as Derby Recorded Music Society in 1945.

Meetings take place at Littleover Baptist Community Hall, Thornhill Road, Littleover, DE23 6FZ, on the second* Tuesday afternoon of the month, starting at 2.15 pm.

The annual membership subscription is £25 and in addition members pay £4 at each meeting they attend. Visitors are welcome to attend any two meetings as temporary members (to comply with copyright licensing conditions) for which there is a small additional charge, which is deducted from the subscription if they then join as full members.

2020

Affiliated to the Federation of Recorded Music Societies

Colin Sharvell continues his exploration of the music of Brahms and of Robert and Clara Schumann.

11th February: RICARDO ODNOPSOFF – WHO?

Keith Shilcock's programme traces the life and recordings of a "significant unknown" violinist of the last century.

10th March: ANNIVERSARIES 2020

The 'big' anniversary this year is Beethoven's 250th which we hope to celebrate nearer the time in December. Meanwhile, Allan Child recalls some other musical anniversaries in 2020.

21st April: A STAR IS BORNE - TWICE?

NB – meeting on the THIRD Tuesday this month

As always with Keith Shilcock's programmes you should expect the unexpected. This meeting will also include the AGM – which we hope will be brief!

12th May: DIETRICH FISCHER-DIESKAU

A tribute by Colin Sharvell to the German baritone who would have been 95 this month.

9th JUNE: "SUMER IS ICUMEN IN"

In our unpredictable climate it may or may not be "flaming June", but music inspired by the season features in this programme by Allan Child.
