

HOW TO FIND US at Littleover Baptist Community Hall

Thornhill Road is off Burton Road about 600 yards west of the ring road (A5111). Coming from the ring road it is the third turning on the left after the Iceland store. There is a direction sign to the Church opposite the end of Thornhill Road. For SatNav use postcode DE23 6FZ.

There is a small parking area next to the Church, and street parking is possible in Thornhill Road and Old Hall Road. Convenient buses from the City centre are Trent Barton's 'Harlequin' from Gower Street and V3 from the bus station, together with Arriva's 5A from Babington Lane; alight at Iceland – the second stop after the ring road.

The Jubilee Music Circle takes its name from its formation in the Queen's Diamond Jubilee year, 2012. It is a successor to the Derby Music Circle which was founded as Derby Recorded Music Society in 1945.

Meetings take place at Littleover Baptist Community Hall, Thornhill Road, Littleover, DE23 6FZ, on the second* Tuesday afternoon of the month, starting at 2.15 pm.

The annual membership subscription is £25 and in addition members pay £4 at each meeting they attend. Visitors are welcome to attend any two meetings as temporary members (to comply with copyright licensing conditions) for which there is a small additional charge, which is deducted from the subscription if they then join as full members.
